This well known and highly esteemed citizen of Jackson County died at his home in Moss Point on Sunday morning, August 10, 1941, his death being a sudden one and a great shock to his widow and friends. It is stated that he arose as usual Sunday morning, and was drinking a cup of coffee in his living room, when Mrs. Allred, who was in an adjoining room, heard a strange sound and rushing into the room, found Mr. Allred in the throes of death. He died in a few minutes, his death was caused by a sudden stroke.

McInnis. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Pascagoula, the following being the pall bearers: J. W. Brumfield, Roy Wingfield, E. F. Grant, J. R. Watts, W. R. Gulley and Clem Hayes.
